PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY HARNEY, HUGHES & CO.

OFFICE—

South Side Green Street, two doors below the Customhouse.

MONDAY, OCT. 3, 1864.

NOTICE TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.

The Daily Democrat delivered by carriers throughout the city will hereafter be at the rate of twenty-five cents per week, including the Sunday paper.

Important Notice.

Owing to the increased expense of every article used in the printing business, and on the expense of composition, we are compelled to increase the cost of the Daily Democrat. Hereafter the Daily, by mail, will be one dollar per month, or six dollars for six months, or ten dollars per year, always in advance.

Important to News Dealers.

We understand that General Sherman has issued an order by which any person who desires to sell papers at the front, thus destroying the monopoly which has so long in convenience the army, and deprived it of a full supply of paper.

Persons can procure any number of papers at this office at the usual rate of three dollars per hundred; postage added, if by mail.

CITY NEWS.

No Water Supply This Morning. A valve in the main water pipe beyond Beargrass broke yesterday afternoon, and, as a consequence, the city is without its usual supply of water this morning.

A force has gone to work, and the repairs will probably be completed by this afternoon or evening.

New Dodos to Raise Money.—One of the latest dodges to swindle citizens out of their money which has been practiced in this city is the following: Three persons will travel together, one of them a soldier, or else dressed in the garb of a soldier. The one who is dressed as a soldier will enter some bar-room or grocery, and manage in some way to induce the proprietor of the establishment to let him have a glass of liquor. The liquor is not more than handed out, when the other two who have been watching the movement from the outside, rush into the house and arrest the person who has just furnished the liquor, at the time representing themselves as Government detectives. They state that it is their duty to carry the person so arrested to the office of the Provost Marshal, at the time telling the man that his entire stock of liquor will be confiscated and he be placed in prison.

A proposition is then made by one of the shams, that he will let the man off and not report him, provided he pays him $30. We have heard of several persons being swindled in this manner of late. We would advise our citizens that whenever they are arrested by persons representing themselves as Government detectives, to at once demand to be taken before the military authorities. There is a positive order against selling liquor to soldiers, and those who are guilty of a violation of this order are subject to some punishment.

ARRESTED FOR OBTAINING MONEY UNDER FALSE PRETENSES.—Saturday evening John D. Aubrey, a Colonel of a negro regiment, was arrested and placed in the city jail by Deputy Marshal George Seaton, upon a felony warrant, charging him with obtaining money under false and fraudulent pretenses. It appears that the said Aubrey went to one D. Mayer, and by representing that he had a large amount of stock in the Louisville & Frankfort railroad, upon which he would give a mortgage, succeeded in borrowing $500. After the money was loaned, Mr. Mayer made inquiries in regard to the Colonel having stock in the railroad, and it was found that the representations were false. Upon this a felony warrant was sworn out by Mayer and the Colonel of the negro regiment was arrested and lodged in the city jail. His case will be investigated before the Police Court this morning.

THE CHARGES AGAINST THE LATE PROVOST MARSHAL.—The charges against Captain W. B. Dunn, of the Twentieth Kentucky, late Provost Marshal of this city, are being thoroughly investigated by Colonel Hammie, now acting as Post Commander. The investigation of the case will implicate some prominent persons in the business of stealing negroes and running them across the river and enlisting them as substitutes, by which the persons implicated have enriched their own pockets and deprived our State of a portion of her quota, and thus caused a draft for a larger number of persons. We will not mention the names of any of the parties implicated, but so soon as the case shall be investigated we will publish the entire testimony, together with the names of all those who have engaged in the detestable business.

GRAND COTILLION PARTY.—A grand cotillion party will be given at Masonic Temple for the benefit of Peter Leaf, who was drawn at the late draft in this city. Every arrangement has been made, and this will no doubt prove the finest affair of the season. Mr. Leaf is a poor man, with a large family dependent upon him for support, and those who attend the party will not only enjoy themselves but they will have the proud satisfaction of knowing that they have contributed to a noble object—that of saving a family from want. We have no doubt that the large hall will be crowded.

CAPTAIN TOM TINDLE.—At "The Drums" saloon, adjoining the theater, has established in connection with his house a restaurant department, under the superintendence of Dick Moore, which has proved a real convenience to those from city or country who wish a cheap dinner or supper, or breakfast, or anything to eat at any hour of the day and at night. He has already grown up a fine patronage, and will continue to attract custom so long as it is conducted upon its present plan, and furnishes "something to eat" at a price the public can afford.

BARRACKS ITEMS.—Yesterday was quite a lively day at the Barracks for Sunday. The receipts were 6000 conscripts from Columbus, Ohio, twenty-five from Cincinnati, and fourteen from Pennsylvania. The following were the transfers: 305 recruits and convalescents to Nashville, sixty-eight to Cairo and thirty-three deserters sent in from a total of sixteen: to Louisville, nine to Cairo, seven to Washington City, and one to Covington.

LAST EVENING.—Last evening Officer Thomas Slater arrested Moses Faust, a young man well known in this city amongst the sporting fraternity, upon the charge of stealing gold pens from the drug store at the corner of Fourth and Jefferson streets. He will be presented before the Police Court this morning.

YESTERDAY.—Yesterday was another exceedingly quiet day, and the streets were almost entirely deserted. The weather was very unpleasant, it being cloudy and damp during the entire day.

THE NASHVILLE TRAIN.—The Nashville train came in on the last evening. So far as we could learn there was nothing of interest transpiring along the route.

ARREST OF A NOTORIOUS BOUNTY JUMPER.—Officer Joseph Sweeney Saturday succeeded in arresting Andrew M. Hall, alias H. C. Wilkins, a notorious thief and bounty jumper, at a lowness of infamy on Lafayette street, kept by a degraded negro woman. This man when he first arrived in the city stopped at the Galt House, where he registered his name as Philip Olden. Some time ago he was in our city, and the police attempted to arrest him, but he succeeded in eluding their vigilance and making his escape. He is a shrewd scoundrel, and has been quite successful in his transactions of villainy. Within the last few months he has succeeded in enlisting in four different regiments, besides once going in as a substitute. He was some time since tried by court-martial in Nashville and sentenced to five years imprisonment, but succeeded in making his escape. He will this morning be turned over to the military authorities and will be sent by them to Nashville, where he will be compelled to serve out the time of his sentence.

Louisville Theater.—To-night the distinguished tragedienne, Mad. Poniat, will make her first appearance at this theater. She comes to us highly recommended by the press of other cities as the best tragic actress on the American stage. The play to-night consists of Shakespeare's tragedy of Macbeth, during which Lock's beautiful original music will be sung by the entire company.

BALLET & CO.'S GREAT COMBINATION EXHIBITION.—The Ohio and Indiana papers come to us filled with descriptive notices of this great show, which seems to be carrying everything before it in the way of amusements wherever it has exhibited.

The living hippopotamus is, of course, the center of attraction, as it is the only specimen ever exhibited under canvas, and the probability is that we will again have an opportunity of witnessing an individual of his rare and curious species. Santa, Nathan & Co.'s performing elephants are known to have been the greatest favorites, proprietors to Louisville, and can testify that they exhibit the most wonderful docility and sagacity of any in the country. Their tricks are novel and very different from those of any other exhibition.

The reputation of Driesbach, and his extensive menagerie, forming a part of this monster combination, is world-wide, and needs no energy from us, while Baileys' star troupe of equestrians are acknowledged to be second to none in the country.

Our citizens are on the qui vive for their arrival, and their pavilion will doubtless be crowded daily and nightly during their stay, which will be for five days, commencing on Monday next.

OFFICE OF THE LOUISVILLE GAS CO. October 1, 1864.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors it was Resolved. That the death of our President, Robert G. Courtney, fills us with most profound sorrow.

Resolved. That during the last twelve years Mr. Courtney has discharged the duties of President of this company, and through the master portion of that term, as Director of Engineer, and to his consummate skill and ability, in connection with his unwavering fidelity and untiring devotion, we give the highest efficiency and prosperity to the Louisville Gas Company, and highly esteem

Resolved. That in his death this company has sustained an irreparable loss, this Board is deprived of a most able, conscientious and amiable coadjutor, and the city of Louisville loses a man of high character, whose whole life has been without reproach.

Resolved. That a copy of these proceedings be furnished to his afflicted family, to whom we tender our most sincere sympathy and condolence.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.
The following are the dispatches received from Gen. Sheridan, detailing his successful operations since the last report:

HARRISONBURG, Va., Sept. 29-30 P. M.

To Lieut. Gen. Grant, City Point:
In my last dispatch I informed you that I pressed early so closely through Newmarket, at the same time sending cavalry around his flanks, that he gave up the valley and took to the mountains, passing through Brown's Gap. I kept him from getting to Poly Ridge, and destroying seventy-five wagons and four guns.

I sent Torbet, who overtook me at Harrisonburg, to Staunton with Wilson's division of cavalry, and one brigade of Merritt's. Torbet had orders to burn all roads, and destroyed a large quantity of rebel government property, harness, saddles, small arms, hard bread, flour, repair shops, &c.

He then proceeded to Waynesboro, destroying the bridge over the South Branch of the Shenandoah, seven miles of the track, the depots, a number of government contractors, and a large amount of leather, &c.

At that place he found the tunnel defended by infantry, and retired via Staunton. In my trap I had him, and he was compelled to retreat. Early had, however, left and passed through the mountains to Charlottesville. Kershaw's division came to his assistance, and I think passed along the base of the mountains to Waynesboro.

I got along from twenty-five to forty prisoners from Early's army daily.

The destruction of the roads will be terrible crop from here to Staunton will be a terrible blow to them.

The country from here to Staunton was abundantly supplied with forage, grain, and feed.

P. H. SHERIDAN.

HARRISONBURG, Va., Sept. 30.

To Lieut. Gen. Grant, City Point:

I am going the rounds of the papers that the Ninth corps was late come to battle at Winchester. I was entirely unconscious of this until I saw it in the papers. The statement is erroneous, and the paper which responded was arrested by my orders on a previous occasion for writing untruthful articles.

F. H. SHERIDAN.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, J. September 29.

Reports from General Butler's department say that the Tenth and Eighteenth corps both crossed the James River at Deep Bottom and advanced against the enemy's works at Chapin's Bluff, the first line of rifle pits without resistance.

At one o'clock the enemy's strong position at Chapin's Bluff was carried by assault and 300 prisoners taken, with sixteen pieces of artillery captured.

A division of the Eighteenth corps is stated to have suffered considerably but to what extent is not known.

Our troops hold this position, which is some seven miles from Richmond.

Heavy fighting was heard this afternoon on our extreme left.

It is believed to be Gregg's cavalry engaging the enemy. They went on a reconnaissance in the direction of the South Side railroad but the result has not been ascertained.

The rebels have been marching forth-to-day in every direction; at one time marching off towards our left and again returning to Petersburg, as if going to Richmond, then appearing at some other point, and finally going off in sight.

Some deserters came in to-day, who say the defeat of Early in the valley had caused great depression throughout the rebel ranks, and thousands were ready to leave on the first opportunity, having lost all faith in their success.

SEPTEMBER 30, 6 A. M.—Brick firing was kept up along the center of the line all last night between the pickets, but this morning the utmost quiet prevails.

Reports that the rebels are evacuating Petersburg are again circulated here.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 1.

The following additional particulars are received from a participant in the fight at Chapin's Bluff:

Gen. Ord (Eighteenth corps), with two small divisions, pushed towards Richmond on Thursday morning, fighting his way and driving in the enemy's front, until he reached Chapin's Bluff. Here were heavy works established on the hill, and the rebels' gunboats were in the river below them. The rebels, though small, had been re-enforced from Richmond by one division.

Gen. Stearns took the initiative of the main work, and thus keeping around himself, and in the rear of the army's other works, drove them out before him.

While this was going on heavy reinforcements came down from Richmond, which were all driven out. The division which did this fighting was a brigade under command of Col. W. C. Clegg, killed in the engagement.

Gen. Ord's division, having lost many men, and wounded, were heavily worked over, and were unable to hold the ground.

Gen. Stearns took the initiative of the main work, and thus keeping around himself, and in the rear of the army's other works, drove them out before him.

This was going on heavy reinforcements came down from Richmond, which were all driven out. The division which did this fighting was a brigade under command of Col. W. C. Clegg, killed in the engagement.

Gen. Stearns took the initiative of the main work, and thus keeping around himself, and in the rear of the army's other works, drove them out before him.

CARDO, October 1.

Memphis papers of the 30th ult. contain nothing important.

Irving prison almost depopulated, many rebels having been transferred to the civil jurisdiction.

Admiral Porter has been transferred from the Mississippi squadron. His farewell address was read here to day. It is not known where he will go, and labor, he, but he has gone to New Orleans. Admiral Charles Davis is spoken of as his successor.

Two hundred seamen went below to-day for different garrisons in the Mississippi squadron.

The steamer Hillman was fired into at Bend No. 4 on Thursday, receiving forty or fifty shots. No one was hurt.

A force of rebels were seen at Tiptonville.

Forrest sent a flag of truce into the camp of the North Missouri cavalry at Hernando on the 28th ult., stating that he had a number of sick and wounded rebels to exchange.

Forrest's bluff for exchange.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.

Lieut. Commander Gillis, of the Scotia is reported to the Navy Department, that the Scotia has been captured in the Gulf of Mexico, and that the Arosa took her, and will now be sent to Spain.

The Admiralty has approved the report of the Naval Board convened under the act of April 21st, 1864, of the following cases of protection:

James F. Schenck, R. W. Meade and Fabius Stanley to be Captains.

The following is to be Commander.

CHATTANOOGA, Sept. 29.

Major White of the Twenty-seventh Pennsylvania, and a member of the Pennsylvania Senate, captured fourteen men, and a number of rebels, and was held in custody.

He is now being held in custody in the special arrangement between Hough and Sherman, and without the knowledge of the Richmond authorities, who have heretofore refused to exchange him on any terms.

Brig. Gen. Wagner has taken command of the Second Division of the Twentieth corps in place of Brig. Gen. Newton, who has been ordered to West.

The latest intelligence says that the main road between Nashville and Atlanta has not been touched.

(Special to Commercial.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.

The government has officially information that the invasion of Missouri is substantially quashed.

Sherman restored his command upon the part of Brig. Gen. Newton, who has been ordered to West.

The latest intelligence says that the main road between Nashville and Atlanta has not been touched.

It is now positively stated that Gen. Sherman has corresponded with Gov. George concerning peace, and that the government approves of Sherman's course in the matter.

The Republican has official information that Sherman has started Early's force to the west, and has destroyed the immense supplies gathered for Lee's army, and that all is going right with Grant.

BALTIMORE, October 1.

The Bulletin of this city has the following special dispatch:

It is reported that Gen. Kautz's cavalry on Wednesday evening advanced on a reconnoissance to within a mile and a half of Richmond, and was surprised to find so few rebels in the vicinity.

Most of Gen. Butler's forces are within four miles of the city.

Great activity prevailed on the left of our lines, and Gregg's cavalry had advanced to Ramey's Station.

The rebel lines were very thin, the cannonading of Wednesday inflicted but little damage upon us.

NASHVILLE, Oct. 1.

Forrest, with his whole force, appeared before Huntsville this morning and demanded its surrender.

Brig. Gen. Tamm, G. M. L. Johnson, Twelfth corps cavalry, refused to comply.

There has probably been heavy fighting there to day.

No fears are entertained of its capture.

The total federal loss in Gen. Roseau's corps in killed and wounded is $3.

Large numbers of rebels were reported at Spring Hill, twelve miles beyond Franklin. The wires are cut at the junction.
